DeVry Tech
Gives Diploma
To Localite

Ronald J. Wagner, 22, 2104 Arlington Ave., Torrance, an employee of Harvey Aluminum, has recently completed a specialized home training program in Instrumentation and Control from DeVry Technical Institute of Chicago.

In awarding Wagner's diploma, O. I. Thompson, DeVry's Tech's Director of Education, said:

"This is a major accomplishment and I offer my hearty congratulations to you. A person who completes a home training program demonstrates one of the most sought-after qualities in the business world today — determination. Completing this program not only shows your determination, but also prepares you for many fine opportunities."

New FashionStore OpensIn Del Amo

Tamara's Feminine Fashions in the East Mall of the Del Amo Shopping Center will have their Grand Opening beginning Tuesday and lasting through August 5.

This is the third fashion outlet to be opened by Maurice Praw and Alex Chaba, the other two locations being in San Pedro and Los Angeles. The owners will serve as store managers of the new Del Amo location. The store will feature brand new stock of women's fashions including name brand sportswear, dresses, lingerie and brasseries, etc.

The owners bring to the business 15 years in the field of women's fashions.

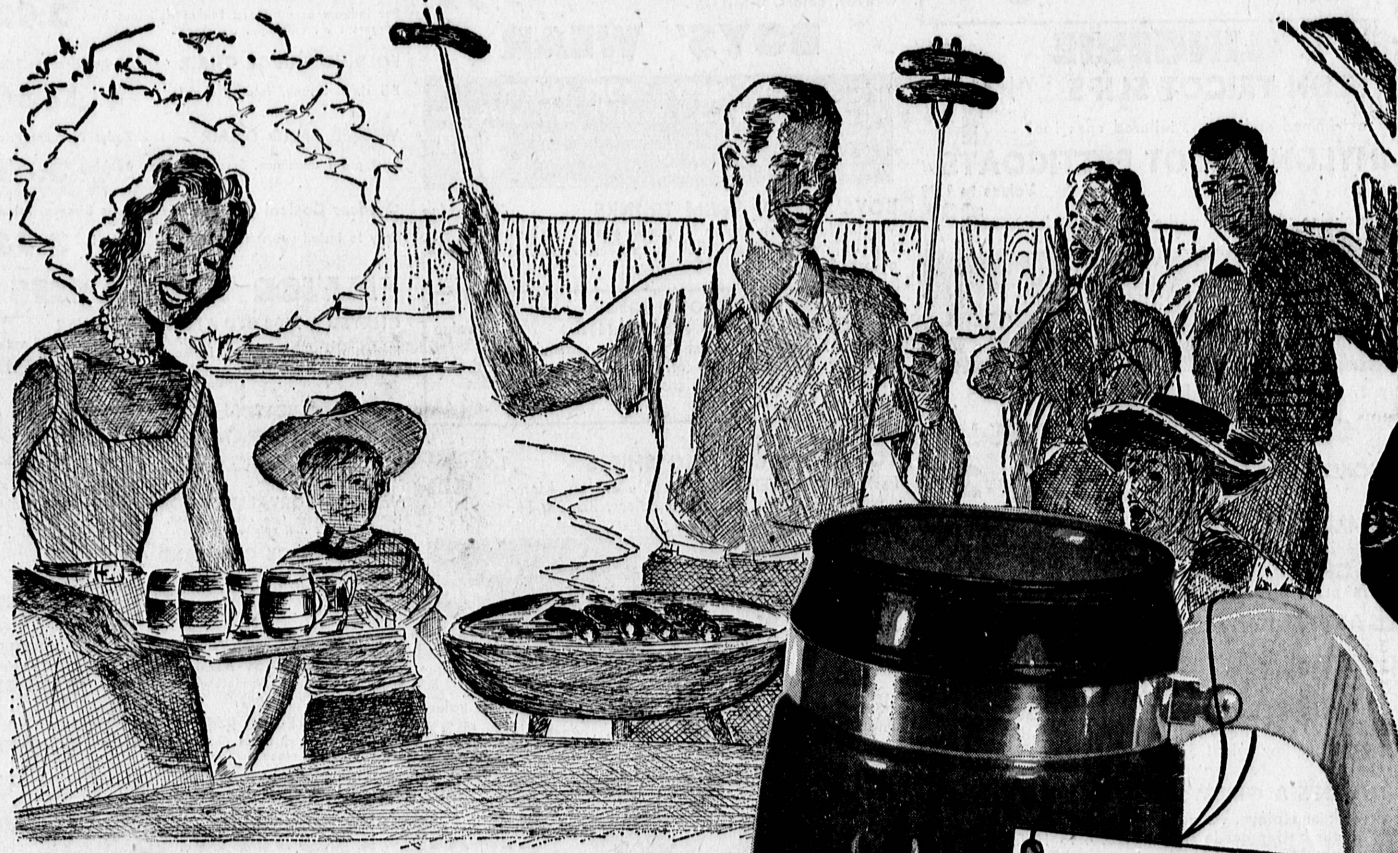

During the Grand Opening, a special 10% discount will be offered to the public on all items in the store. With $10 purchases, buyers will be given a free pair of hose.

Receives Degree

David L. Rhone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rhone, 1019 Beech Ave., received his BA degree in history at Whittier College in June. He will re-enter Whittier in September to work on his general secondary for high school teaching.
